Pre-primary school is often a child's first experience away both from home and loving care of their parents. It thus, becomes primary objective of such schools to provide a warm and comforting environment to make the transition smooth. Joy of learning and a love of school starts early and can flourish in the right environment. Campus Nursery school started way back in 1964 has been committed to making learning a joyful experience and school a happy place !The school has always kept itself abreast with new research in teaching, pedagogical changes and understanding child psychology.

The open campus of CNS, lush green lawns and the open spirit stimulates mind and learning in the young children. Campus Nursery School has designed its curriculum and teaching methodology on the belief that children learn best by doing and experiencing-through discovery and play. We call this 'active learning' which offers space and time to the children through different activities to explore nature, their surrounding, interact with people and ideas to construct new understanding.

Campus school aims at the holistic development of a child's social, emotional, cognitive and physical needs in order to build a solid and broad foundation for lifelong learning and well-being. We try to develop desirable social attitudes and manners, emotional maturity by guiding the child to express, understand, accept and control his feelings and emotions. The school strives continuously to make early schooling a memorable, happy and healthy experience believing in collaboration and not competition.

"Education is not the filling of a pail. but the lighting of a fire."

- William Butler Yeats

Pre-primary education gives children a solid foundation upon which all learning depends on, making every stage of education that follows more efficient and more productive.

It aims at the holistic development of a child's social, emotional, cognitive and physical needs in order to build a solid and broad foundation for lifelong learning and wellbeing. ECCE has the possibility to nurture caring, capable and responsible future citizens."

Welcome to Campus Nursery School...

"Children are living beings- more living than people who have built shells of habit around themselves. Therefore, it is absolutely necessary for their mental health and development that they should not have 'mere school' for their lessons, but a world whose guiding spirit is personal".

- Rabindranath Tagore

May I take this opportunity to welcome you and your family to our school community. We hope this will be the beginning of a long and happy association with Campus Nursery School. We acknowledge that you, the parents, are the first educators of your child and continue to serve as an integral component of your child's development. As we work together for the education and overall development of your child, it becomes imperative that we strive to attain mutual support & co-operation. The school staff is committed to achieve excellence through a collaborative approach. This provides a platform that allows children to learn together to achieve their personal best in a united and caring environment.

The challenge raised by COVID-19, due to which children could not physically attend the school, was very well accepted by our teachers. Their commitment to learn and update themselves to newer technologies together with the creative efforts made the online learning very interesting for children in this pandemic situation. I look forward to journeying with you and sharing the task of bringing children to a level of greater knowledge of themselves and their world.
